HOC SIGNO FORTUNA.

BALTIMORE, TUESDAY, May 22, 1821.

The Superior Advantages

Offered to adventurers in the Grand State Lottery of Maryland are evident on a moment's comparison with any other scheme now published in the United States; the public seem aware also of the great prospects of gain, judging from the continued and increasing demand for the tickets.—Recollect that the first drawn three thousand Blanks will be entitled to ten dollars each.

The Price of Tickets

In the Grand State Lottery will be advanced in a very short time; in order to secure investments at the present original rates, adventurers should send on their orders without loss of time.

The GRAND STATE LOTTERY will be the FIRST to be completed in this city, under the superintendence of the COMMISSIONERS appointed by the GOVERNOR AND COUNCIL, by special Act of Assembly. The CASH will be advanced the moment they are drawn for all prizes sold at COHEN'S OFFICES, and will be paid to the fortunate adventurers either in GOLD, SILVER, or in Notes of the BANK OF THE UNITED STATES.

The principal prizes are

- 1 Capital of 40,000 dollars,
- 1 Capital of 20,000 dollars,
- 1 Capital of 10,000 dollars,

- 20 Capitals of 1,000 dollars,

Besides a large number of 100's 50's and Five Hundred of TWENTY DOLLARS, each &c.

Whole Tickets $9	Quarters $2 25
Halves 4 50	Eighths 1 12

ORDERS, enclosing either Cash or prizes in any of the late lotteries, post paid, will meet the same prompt and punctual attention as if on personal application—address to

United States Frigate Congress.

By Capt. Woodhouse, who arrived at Philadelphia on the 13th in 49 days from Rio Janeiro we learn that the United States Frigate Congress J. D. Henley, Esq. Commander arrived at Rio on the 6th March from China, for the purpose of obtaining supplies, having a number of her men sick of scurvy and dysentery, and expected to sail for Norfolk about the 1st of April. Captain Henley, and all the officers well, except the commanding officer of marines.

Constellation Frigate.

By the Canada, from Buenos Ayres, a letter is received from Captain Ridgely, of the frigate Constellation, dated St. Jago de Chili, Feb. 15—which states the arrival of that ship at Valparaiso, on the 4th, in 44 days from Rio Janeiro, all well. The Macedonian frigate had not sailed for the United States at the date of the above letter.

Constitution Frigate.

BOSTON, May 14.

"Old Iron Sides"—The United States frigate Constitution, Capt. Jacob Jones, dropped down to President's Road on Saturday, and sailed from thence yesterday morning, under a light breeze. She is bound for the Mediterranean, to relieve Commodore Bainbridge, who will immediately return to the United States, in the Columbus 74.

The Franklin Ship of the Line.

The expedition now preparing at New-York for the South Atlantic and Pacific Oceans, by the elegant ship of the line commanded by Commodore STEWART, does honor to the administration.—Not only will the voyage display our flag, and protect our commerce, along the coasts and in the seas visited, but will afford a noble specimen of our power and moderation wherever the vessel may go. It may be expected the Franklin will, before her return, circumnavigate the globe. During her course, there will be great scope for maritime observations by naturalists. The opportunities for making observations in zoology, botany and mineralogy, will be no less advantageous. There is the most solid assurance that the able and intelligent commander, the friend of science, will give every practicable facility to such researches. There never was so good and favourable an occasion for young gentlemen to embark in an enterprise of great promise. Valuable discoveries may be anticipated, and new and rare productions from the countries visited, be brought home. Protection, subsistence, the means of prosecuting enquiries, and the fame and honor resulting therefrom, are all presented to the qualified persons who aspire to the high distinction.—Gazette.

Ten dollar Cape Fear Bank Bills, with the letter C, dated Wilmington, January 1, 1814—the paper new and of a flesh color. R. Bradley, cashier, well executed; and that of Jno. London, president, badly done—were in circulation at Wilmington North Carolina, on the 28th ult.

GEOGRAPHY AND SOIL OF FLORIDA.

From Darby's Memoir on Florida.

This country as ceded to the United States, by the recent ratified treaty with Spain, has the Atlantic ocean and the Bahama channel to the east Florida or Cuba channel south; the Gulph of Mexico west and south-west; Perdido bay and river west; and Alabama and Georgia to the north.

Florida has an exterior limit on the Atlantic ocean, between the mouth of St. Mary's river and Cape Sable	Miles.
Upon the Gulf of Mexico between Cape Sable and the inlet of Perdido	450
Interior limits, with Alabama, up the Perdido, and to the 31° N. lat	600
Along Alabama and N. lat 31°, to the right bank of Chatahooche river	40
Thence with Georgia, down Chatahooche, to the junction of that stream and Flint river	140
Thence to the source of St. Mary's river	40
Down the St. Mary's to the mouth	140
Having an outline of	80
Area, 54,600 square miles, equal to 34,944,000 acres. Of this superficies, there lies south of N. lat. 30°, 39,900 square miles, 25,536,000 acres;	1490 and north of N. lat. 30°, 14,700 square miles 9,408,000 acres.

Extreme south, N. lat. 25° nearly; extreme, north, N. lat. 31°; and possessing a range of 6 degrees of latitude.

To those who visit Florida with high-raised opinions in favor of its natural advantages, much disappointment is in store; but those who commence an examination of this country with expectations to meet with nothing but sterility, will not be less, but more agreeably disappointed than the former class. In a space so extensive, and with a climate so mild, many spots have concentrated all the rich features of a tropical physiognomy. When it is considered, that when compared with the entire area, so small a part of any equal surface in the United States is actually cultivated, it may be conceded, that if one-twentieth part of its superficies can be brought under the dominion of the orchard, the scythe, or the plough, that even in an agricultural point of view, Florida is an invaluable acquisition to the people of the United States.
